Thanks to support from Greenville Area Community Foundation, we now proudly present our newly revised webpage at www.flatrivermuseum.org

GHS HI-LIFE YEAR BOOKS ARE NEEDED TO COMPLETE OUR COLLECTION!

Our collection of Greenville High School yearbooks has been brought out of storage for research. However, we are missing a few years, so if you are willing to part with a yearbook we lack, let us know.

These are the Hi-Life issues we NEED: 1920 and 1922 (tho not sure both were published); 1934, 1937, 1939. 1941, 1942, 1945, 1949, 1960, 1972. We also need ALL yearbooks from 1984 to present.

THANK YOU for supporting us on Giving Tuesday!

Thanks to supporters like you, we are able to:

- * present interactive exhibits
- * provide school programming for students and teachers
- * offer special events highlighting local history
- * share outdoor artifacts in the Victorian Garden.

We appreciate your continuing support!

Have you noticed our new look?

Several new outdoor signs have been installed on the museum building, so stop by and take a look!

At the northeast corner of our museum, a new museum sign has been posted with our new logo. Along with it is a new sign to thank the Greenville Area Community Foundation for all their support, both now and in the past. Their new logo seems to urge us to strive upward and onward into the future!

Our colorful quilt square on the north side of the museum has been recreated of more permanent materials. Board member Kelly Whitmer originally created the quilt design, "Indians, Sawmills, and Danes," paying homage to the historical book of the Flat River area, written by past museum historian, Robertson Augustine.

Our museum logo and name have been mounted on the rear of our building visible from the trail and parking lot. It helps direct visitors to the museum entrance stairs – or to the brick pathway through the Victorian Garden to the museum ramp.

Information about our outdoor artifacts and displays will be mounted when warmer weather allows.
